

- WHFC is a private, non-profit child welfare agency specializing in international adoption and all related services since 1974.
- WHFC is the largest adoption agency in the Northeast; one of the leading in the U.S.
- WHFC has placed over 10,000 children from 56 countries. In 2007 WHFC placed 701 children.
- WHFC is a full-service adoption agency providing the following comprehensive assistance and expertise:
 - Homestudy Services
 - Program Selection
 - Match and Placement
 - Post-Placement Services
 - Post-Adoption Counseling
 - Cultural & Educational Events
 - Pregnancy Counseling Services for expectant parents considering placing their child for adoption
- WHFC places children through our direct adoption programs in the following countries:
 - China
 - Colombia
 - Ethiopia
 - Guatemala
 - India
 - Kazakhstan
 - Korea
 - Philippines
 - Russia
 - Taiwan
 - Ukraine
 - United States
- WHFC also places children from other countries through our parent-initiated program. This allows families working with another international placement agency or directly with an international contact, to use our services.
- Horizon Kids: WHFC is committed to finding parents for children who have been waiting for an adoptive family, including older children, those with special needs and sibling groups. The agency places more than 100 waiting children from around the world each year. Our new Children of Hope program matches specific severe special needs children to a $5,000 subsidy.
- WHFC works with families across the U.S. Based in Waltham, MA, the agency is licensed in seven states (CT, MA, NH, NJ, NY, RI, VT). Regional offices are located in West Hartford, CT; Needham, MA; Pittsfield, MA; Montclair, NJ; Manhattan, NY; Oyster Bay, NY; Troy, NY; Bedford, NH; Providence, RI and Burlington, VT.
- WHFC has donated over $10 million in humanitarian aid to needy children around the world; including over $1 million within the past year.
- WHFC awards financial subsidies based on a family's financial profile and need, as well as the adoptive child's specific set of circumstances. A handful of $5,000 benefactor awards are given to eligible applicants unable to adopt a child without considerable financial assistance.
- WHFC has approximately 100 employees.
